

The background of the poster is a photograph of the interior of Hedvig Eleonora Church. On the left, a large, ornate chandelier with a white fringed shade hangs from the ceiling. The ceiling itself is highly decorated with gold leaf and intricate carvings. On the right, a stained glass window with colorful patterns is visible, and below it, a religious painting or relief depicting a figure, possibly a saint or martyr, is partially seen. The overall atmosphere is one of historical grandeur and religious artistry.
